

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Terrible Revenge.

Manville (much excited)—He ruined me in business. He smirched my good name. He flinched from me the girl I loved; but at last, ha! ha! I am avenged!

Nante—Good gracious! What did you do?

Manville (hissing through his set teeth)—I recommended him to spend his holidays at the seaside lodgings I had last year, and he's going to do it.

TOO SHORT-WAISTED.

Lady—Good morning. I left my bathing dress here yesterday by mistake; may I have it, please?
Bathing Man—This the one, miss?—The Tatler.

The Latest.

Rounder—Wedderly wasn't at the stag party last night, was he?

Bounder—No. He was storm-bound.

Rounder—Why, there wasn't any storm last night.

Bounder—Oh, yes there was. His wife had a brain storm.—Chicago News.

Her Best Recollection.

Mrs. Lapsling was explaining the nature of the injury sustained by Johnny when he fell off the back porch.

"It's a wonder he ever went through it alive," she said. "The doctor says he came mighty near fracturing his juxtaposition. You know that's the bone next to the Medullion obligato."—Chicago Tribune.

Modern Improvements.

Fire Insurance Agent—I fear I must charge you extra rates. You burn kerosene oil here, I see.

Mr. Subub—Yes, but we run no extra risk—no risk at all. The kitchen is separate from the house, and there is a skylight in the roof big enough for the servant girl and the cookstove to sail through without hurting anything.—N. Y. Weekly.

Believed.

Physician—Your boy will pull through all right. He has a wonderful constitution.

Mr. Tyte-Phist—I am glad to hear it, doctor. In making out your bill, of course, you will not make me pay for what his constitution has done in pulling him through.—Chicago Tribune.

Slight Mistake.

First Stranger—Excuse me, but you are a physician, I believe?

Second Stranger—You are mistaken, sir.

First Stranger—But I overheard you say you followed the medical profession.

Second Stranger—And so I do. I'm an undertaker.—Chicago Daily News.

Keeping the Peace.

Citizen (breathlessly)—A lot of roughs are rioting down street, smashing windows and clubbing inoffensive citizens.

Policeman—Been smokin' opium, I'm thinkin'. I'll run around and pull a Chinese laundry.—N. Y. Weekly.

At the Side Show.

Ballyhoo—I can't seem to scare up a crowd. All our attractions are too old.

Museum Manager—Let's get up an eating contest between the two-headed girl and the elastic-skinned man.—Cleveland Leader.

Aero Club Note.

Bacon—You say Santos-Dumont never smokes when he's up in his balloon?

Egbert—Never; but when he comes down the first thing he likes is to be helped to alight.—Yonkers Statesman.

All Right.

"What does McDobbs call his series of pictures of the moonshiners of the Kentucky mountains?"

"Studies in still life, I believe."—Cleveland Leader.

DIRECTNESS AND ACCURACY.

mum result. This insured his success and gave him the reputation of "the successful specialist," and, quite naturally, the prescription that he thus used most became "HIS FAVORITE," and was the origin of that had run into great popularity because it cured more than ninety-eight out of every hundred of the cases in which it was correctly used.

One of the important ingredients of this now world-famous "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" is

BLUE COHOSH ROOT,

which was in great repute among the American Indians a century ago. The squaws used it for the relief of their special troubles, particularly for the easing of the pains of maternity, calling it "Papoose root." Then there are four other ingredients in this "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION," namely: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Golden Seal root and Unicorn root.

It Stands Alone

not only in respect to its known composition, but also as the only specific, advertised remedy for woman's diseases which absolutely CONTAINS NO ALCOHOL.

It Stands Alone as the one medicine, the makers of which take their patients fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

Scarcity of Clergymen.

The supply of clergymen in England is not keeping pace with the demand so far as the Episcopal church is concerned, the Trinity ordination lists showing this year only an increase of eight deacons over 1906.

To Forget.

To forget is the great secret of strong and creative natures—to forget after the manner of Nature herself, who knows no past, who begins afresh at every hour the mysteries of her unwarranted travail.—Balzac.
